Fan Access to the Yard

The Naval Academy is a secure, Department of Defense installation. Vehicular access to the Yard requires prior coordination and a pass or a Government issued Department of Defense ID Card.

Guests and fans without a pass can park outside the Yard (in downtown Annapolis) and enter through Gate 1, then go through the Visitor's Center. A government issued ID card is required for adults.

There is also a shuttle service that will transfer fans from the Football Stadium on occasion. Parking costs $5 at the stadium. The shuttle will begin operation 1 hour prior to the start of the match. Please have fans, family members, and Administrators refer to the website link above on the Navy Sports website.

Tailgating on the United States Naval Academy:

Tailgating with the use of open grills, fire pits, and tents on the Naval Academy Yard is not prohibited. If your team would like to set up tables for a pre/post game meal, please contact Maddie Fischer at fischer@usna.edu.

Food

The Drydock Restaurant is located on the Naval Academy Yard in Dahlgren Hall just a short distance from Alumni Hall and Wesley Brown Field House. You can pre-order food from Drydock by contacting the following information:
